Lenny Harner

Author of Unlocking the Mind of an Addict

sponsored by

Unlocking the mind of an addict is an innovative book designed to help parents fight addiction on a front that can make a difference; the familial front. Readers are educated on the disease concept of addiction, stages of disease progression, denial and enabling.

Lenny Harner is a native of Shreveport, Louisiana. He received his M.S. from Texas A&M University-Commerce in 1998. A Licensed Professional Counselor and a Licensed Chemical Dependency Counselor, Lenny has worked in the field of Chemical Dependency Counseling for 20 years.

The town forum is Promise of Hope's contribution to National Alcohol & Drug Addiction Recovery Month.
